

The 11 Best New Bars in San Francisco: Spring 2018

It should come as no surprise that new bars are popping up in San Francisco all the time. Many of these spots are vanguards, offering new trends and styles of drinking. One might be a more relaxed craft spot, another might have sweeter-yet-balanced drinks, and still another might effortlessly incorporate high-tech equipment and techniques. At least one of these 11 new establishments could be your next favorite hangout.—Virginia Miller

2. CHARMAINE'S

This glamorous new bar, along with restaurant Villon, at the new Proper hotel offers drinks from Josh Harris and Morgan Schick of BVHospitality. Charmaine's is the rooftop bar S.F. has been waiting for. With a fire pit, couches, great tastes and a sleek design, the view is truly magical.

THE DRINK TO DRINK: Try the Cuddly Toy, a silky blend of Avión silver tequila, Luxardo Bitter bianco liqueur and house-made spiced banana bread syrup.

KNOW BEFORE YOU GO: Hot dogs are topped with Bavarian mustard and fermented lettuce on milk and honey buns, while for dessert, churros come with an urfa-pepper-spiced chocolate banana dip.
